Teammate Development at CHS

Did YOU Know?

Saturday Education at CHS

Teammates,

Learning something new is not only good for your mind, it enriches your spirit. To enhance your teammate experience with CHS, we are offering a variety of free educational opportunities every Saturday through the end of the year. Class themes include financial health, healthy lifestyle, leadership development, professional development and diversity and inclusion.

A few examples of upcoming classes are “Finding Harmony in Your Life – Stress Management,” and “Navigating the Organization as a Millennial When a Boomer or Gen-Xer is in Charge,” hosted by Rebecca Schmale, PhD, VP, Learning and Organizational Development.

Take time this week to review the Saturday Education classes available through the end of the year. I encourage you to find an opportunity that interests you and ask a friend to join you!

Please know, learning with your fellow teammates provides opportunities to grow and expand your community within CHS.

Enjoy a wonderful week.
